

NICOLE WOLFORD

PROPERTY MANAGER

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Nicole Wolford serves as an Association Manager to the New Albany Homeowners Association and comes to NAI Ohio Equities after having spent the past five years as a community manager for a well-known boutique-style brand where she oversaw the management of two communities. Nicole led her team and communities through a successful renovation and was recognized for delivering both superior customer service and desired aesthetics to the portfolio. She has demonstrated a capability in leading large projects from bidding through completion while staying on budget and maintaining strong relationships with the community.

Nicole studied Construction Engineering at the University of Toledo and is skilled in contract and price negotiation, budgeting, planning and forecasting, and mergers and acquisitions. Her hobbies include beauty and fashion, fitness, and travel.
