John has been with NAI Ohio Equities since 2015. He is a committed realtor with the ability to provide an expert level of market knowledge in a wide array of commercial real estate transactions. His integrity and energy add a layer of creativity that can benefit any business. John professionally represents tenants, buyers, businesses, and landlords by developing a detailed plan to meet their mission and goals. His flexible background and expertise allow him to work on office, retail, and industrial transactions. His favorite part of the process is to be able to use his market knowledge, opinion of value, and proven strategies to execute deals that satisfy both the landlords as well as tenants.
